

Section I: Background

Contest formats, or any individual components, are subject to review at any and all times by the IRGC. “Minor Variations,” described as entry fees, number of winners, prize limits, contest durations, winning conditions, and/or payout structure may be executed without commission approval, but should have details submitted to the IRGC for proper review.

For contest formats, components or other relevant pieces of fantasy contests which are not labeled in the following table(s) as approved, operators and licensees should submit detailed requests to the IRGC for investigation and approval.

Fantasy contests may only involve teams and athletes competing at the “premiere” professional level or league for the respective sport and NOT subordinate developmental leagues. I.e., MLB fantasy contests are approved types, MiLB fantasy contests are NOT approved; NBA fantasy contests are approved types, NBA G-League fantasy contests are NOT approved.

Additionally, collegiate sports of any kind are NOT approved. I.e., NCAA: Division I, II, & III, NAIA, NJCAA, USCAA, NCCAA, ACCA, CCCAA, NWAC, NCBA, ACCC, RMCCC, ECCCC, SCCCC, MWCCC, SECCC. NCCCC, SWCCC, NWCCC, WCCC, BWCFC, NCIFL, SAC, SWIFA, EAGL, EIGL, CLA, EARC, EAWRC, CSFL, MIVA, WWPA, NCWA, Independents, etc. are NOT approved.

Section II: Esports

Until further notice, esports will be subject to special reporting requirements. These requirements will apply to Dota 2, Counter Strike Global Offensive, and League of Legends. Operators must provide status updates to the Commission with a summary of contest activity and any other information as required by the Commission. Segregate reports by league. Include the total number of entries, each individual entry, entry fees, user ID or name of the player entering the contest, operator’s net win, patron complaints or concerns, and any integrity concerns or other relevant insights. Updates shall be submitted to the Commission on the first business day of every month and shall include all entries placed in the previous month. Updates must be sent to irgceventwagering@iowa.gov.
